

I thought that the airwaves belonged to the people, not the corporations. I'm tired of the homogenization of radio & television choices out there. We need more owners, not less!